Donations of books in excellent condition, including children's titles, DVDs and CDs are being accepted now (no Readers Digest condensed books, textbooks, encyclopedias or LPs please). Bring donations to the Accounts Desk. A receipt for tax purposes is available upon request.

Wiltondale Improvement Association President's Letter

A belated 'Happy New Year' to all. As I conclude this year as President, I want to express my appreciation to everyone for their support during these past 12 months. I especially want to thank our Board of Directors for their service to our neighborhood. We all appreciate your commitment to sustaining the values that make Wiltondale such a great place to live. Finally, a special thanks to our newsletter editor, Alison Mingo, who keeps us all informed and cheerfully accommodates my last-minute submissions. Thanks, Alison!

As I write this, we are working to set up a special meeting with a representative from Baltimore County police to discuss the recent wave of armed robberies in our area. Please watch you email for a message from Wiltondale COP for further details. We are targeting a Wednesday evening at Ascension Church - again, please watch your email for confirmation. Clearly this is a matter of critical importance to our community, and we encourage your participation in this meeting.

I also invite you to attend the Wiltondale Annual Meeting on Sunday, Jan. 27, at 6 p.m. This is an opportunity to hear news and make your voice heard on matters that are important to our community. We will start our business at 6:30, and the meeting will be followed by dinner and time to meet and greet neighbors. Hope to see you there.

Congratulations to our Holiday Decoration winners: Maureen Flynn, the Kimballs, the Wencks and the Bruners. Our neighborhood is always beautiful, and never more so than during the holiday season. Thanks to everyone for all the lights and decorations that help make the season special.

One final note: please see elsewhere in this newsletter the slate of nominees for the Executive Committee as well as new and returning Directors. As I thank everyone for their support this past year, I also appreciate the confidence of the Board and Nominating Committee in nominating me for another term as President. I look forward to working with the Executive Committee, all of whom are slated to return for another year of service, as well as the full Board on another great year in Wiltondale. In the meantime, support Purple Power—Go Ravens!

Tim Lotz, President, WIA
