2016 Race for Greenwood Park

This year's race for Greenwood Park was a huge success despite the rain and cold. Thank you to all of the participants, sponsors and volunteers. A special thank you to our platinum sponsor Emergent Biosolutions and to Lauren La Canfora for organizing the entire event!

Congratulations to the winners:

Age group	Male	Female
1-12	Will Shaw	Maddie Bindon
13-15	Alex Sorensen	Aslynn Gorkos
20-29	Shane Reagan	Rachel Young
30-39	Jeremy Stevens (Overall Winner)	Grace Wenger
40-49	Ben Battaglia	Holly Battaglia
50-59	Mike Rudie	Brenda Evans
60 & over	Stan Neumann

A chilly, rainy morning didn't stop Norah Sorensen, Lucy Persons, Gwen Barber, Dylan Dickensheets, and June Barber from having a fun time running to support our neighborhood park.

TRIANGLE HAPPY HOUR A DELICIOUS SUCCESS!

Despite a rain shower that delayed the start time, close to 100 residents partook in the annual "Welcome to the neighborhood" gathering at the Triangle. Bottles of wine were handed out to new homeowners, while others brought delicious appetizers, desserts, and drinks to share. A fabulous new addition to the party was the mobile wood-fired pizza oven. Stevenson Lane resident and new Events Committee member Alan Morgan started up the fire at 2:30pm to ensure it was 500+ degrees by party time. By 9pm, more than 80 pizzas had been served. A special thanks to Alan and to his employer Whole Foods for donating the oven and all the ingredients. "This is awesome!" was heard over and over again throughout the evening.

A GOODBYE MESSAGE

After 33 ½ years on Yarmouth Road, I want to say goodbye to this neighborhood where I raised 4 kids, got remarried, and from which I commuted to my job at MPT, to Howard University for grad school and to McDaniel College where I was professor & department chair. So many of you have touched my life in different ways, so I want to give shoutouts—

To Rella Murphy for inviting me to join a book group where we ate and discussed, and where I met Maureen Flynn, Anita Richardson, Barb English, Casey Cunningham, Susan Weirman, Karen Gilliss, Carol Appleby and the late Maryjeanne Mullen and saw my old buds Joyce Noyes and Beth Andresini; To Kim McMenamin and Terra McFee for hosting bridge parties; To Ann and Wayne McKim for having us to Thanksgiving; To Susan and Theresa Barnes for dogsitting; To the late Rhea Fisher who described the old days when her neighbor's house was a speakeasy; To Jim Turner who used to help us fix stuff; To Dick Peyton for inviting me to co-write the first Baltimore Co. Community Action grant that got money to improve the playground and install plants to stop erosion at the stream; To Dot and the late Burt Greenwood for that party at their Middle River house where we saw the stealth bomber crash during the air show; To Dave Hunter for asking me to be on the Board, and then drafting me to be an officer; To my pals at the pool Susan Behm, Didi Missler, and Terry Beauchamps; To Toby and Lina Tighe for organizing the seats to see Bob Dylan at Towson U; To Norm and Holly Spector who held the one and only Wiltondale toga party (what a blast!); To Joe DiNardi and Charlotta Turner for duking it out in an inflatable boxing ring during an annual neighborhood party; To those who brought food to the annual party potlucks party, where we bonded while swapping recipes; To Tod and Tracy Cioni for watching our house and guarding our mail when we were away, sharing their electricity when our side of the street was dark, and snowblowing our sidewalk; To all my Yarmouth Road neighbors; To members of the Garden Club; and last but not least, to Kay Hunter for being my garden design partner in our part-time business for 25 years and 10 years doing our annual plant sale; and To everyone who greets with a smile, stops to chat, and generally helps create the neighborly vibe we're known for here – farewell until we meet again.
