President's Message to Members August 1, 2016

Edward F. Watt (410) 825-2188 president@wiltondale.org

Summer Reading:

It was just before St. Patrick day in 1972, when I meet with Fordham University's Fr. Vincent Butler SJ, for my college entrance interview. It was my intention to study English at the University of Paddy Chayefsky and Father Butler was my last obstacle.

Looking down and over his wire rimmed glasses he asked me which novel was my favorite; "The Great Gatsby" was my immediate response then as it would be today, if asked the same question. The Jesuit sighed and retorted, "Of course, no big words". Then he explained, "You know Eddie, jocks don't tend to do well here at Fordham, particularly in English".

The Priest's remarks completely put me off to the Bronx. With this newly provided incentive, I applied, was accepted and soon shipped down to Baltimore's Loyola College sight unseen. Thinking during the whole process the joke was on Father Butler, because I really was not that good an athlete. Now I've come to learn Gatsby's author, Francis Scott Key Fitzgerald named after the famous lawyer, poet and his second cousin (twice removed) lived right across York Road from Wiltondale on the La Paix Estate, now part of St. Joseph's Hospital.

It was in Towson, where Fitzgerald completed what he believed was his best novel "Tender in the Night", while his wife, Zelda, was being treated for schizophrenia. Tender in the Night is a story of Dick Diver, a bright young psychiatrist who falls in love with one of his patients.

The Fitzgerald's lived in Towson and Baltimore for only several years, but soon after F. Scott left Maryland, the Wiltondale development was started. It seems from one classic to another.

Many Thanks:

Many thanks to those who have already made payment of their 2016 HOA dues. Our home owner association continues to look out for our community interest. We act as an ombudsman with the County's administrators, legislatures and police department, cooperate with our pool committee, analyze, review and report on local zoning and development issues, run special events and represent Wiltondale in relations with other neighboring, neighborhood HOA.

Perhaps more importantly, the HOA maintains Greenwood Park, which is Wiltondale's Park. As the population density of Towson thickens, our control over this playground will play a larger role in maintaining the character of Wiltondale. Enjoy the remaining summer days.
